Last Night.

The Board of Police and Fire Commissioners met yesterday to discuss the practicability of paving Poplar street. It was decided that in view of the heavy drain on the city treasury for the pavements in Chelsea and other localities, and the necessity for rebuilding two bridges which have been washed away, the matter had better be postponed until such a time as the heard can see its way out. Justice J. S. Galloway as a Compromise time as the board can see its way out. The street will cost $10,000, of which $7500 will be subscribed.

The Shelby County Democratic Convention will meet at the County Courtroom, at 10 o'clock to-day, to nominate a candidate for sheriff, for trustee, and for judge of the Criminal Court. STRAYED.

The answer of Mrs. Lena Mentges to the plea for divorce, made a few days ago by Peter Mentges, was filed in Chaucery yesterday. The cross-bill says: "It is false that respondent began drinking intox: ating liquors thirteen years ago, or at any other time, before or since. It is false that she has contracted the habit of drinking have been expected, has plenty of enemies following, but who, as might naturally have been expected, has plenty of enemies who keep green and fresh the fact of his most unfortunate predilection.

The other candidate is the Hon. Addison meht is as false as it is malicious, and could only have originated in a diseased brain or a deprayed nature." A sweeping denial of all charges is made, with the remark that the trouble is all owing to complainant's habits of intemperance and his dissolute life. Respondent believes that all the allegations against her were prompted by a diseased brain and weak physical could be a diseased brain and H. Douglass, a Democratic war horse. His aw practice has never been extensive, and he has never succeeded in getting into a lucrative business. The reason is not far to seek. Like many a young lawyer, he entered the political arena. He became mayor of the city, and since that time has been one of the most rewarful workers in the interest of condition. The removal to a farm in Tip-ton county was made for the sole purpose of recuperating complainant's health, and of recuperating complainant's health, and not as a means of removing her from the most powerful workers in the interest of the Democratic party in this county and State. Once in politics, he found it impossible to get out. He was too good a stump speaker, and his party could not temptations of drink. After respondent had helped him to build up a good business on Poplar street, he conceived the idea of going to the country for his health, and as it was not benefited concluded to return to the city, and to that end sold his farm. where his services were needed he has enwhere his services were needed he has en-tered heart and soul into the work given genial until the last few years, when comhim to do, and has done his full share toward the success of his party. Boston, July 16.—The Massachusetts
Charitable Mechanics Association has decided not be supported by said Company, or any part of it, is an infr. agement o what is known as the Bell Telephone. Respectfully.

DEAR SIR-In reply to your question propounded in the note heroto attached. I beg to say; I have given the subject referred to much attention, and have closely examined several opinions delivered by different courts in controversies between the Beil Telephone Company, Dolbear, Spencer Ghegan, and others, and I am clearly or opinion that the Pan-Electric, named by you, in no wise infringes the Bell Telephone. From the earliest decisions of our courts to the present, although inventions may in their general printhe earliest decisions of our courts to the present, although inventions may in their general principles be alike, yet if in their operation and working there is an essential or material difference, there is no conflict to amount to an infringement. This is recognized in the historic case of O'Reilly vs. Notse, 15 How., U. S. Reps. 62, and in numerous decisions since that; but more clearly, and with more direct application to the matter now in hand, in Clough vs. Manufacturing Company, 196 U. S. Reps., 178 (October term United States Supreme Court, 1882).

Without attempting any minute detail touching the inventions in question. I am satisfied—theroughly so—that the difference between them is wider and more distinct than that recognized by the court in the case 196 U. S. Reps., Sup.

The courts hold that a "Substantial departure" from a former invention is patentable without in-The courts hold that a "Substantial departure," from a former invention is patentable without infringing. (Duff vs. Sterling Pump Co., 107 U. S. Reps. 636.)

This, in my judgment, is more than enough to insure the Pan-Electric Telephone from any charge of infringement of the Bell Telephone. Very truly, etc.,

D. E. Myers, Esq., National Hotel, City.

WASHINGTON, D. C., January 5, 1884.

Senator Harris, another eminent lawyer of the Senate of the United States, has also given the subject profound investigation from Reiss's original invention of the Telephone, in Germany, down to Drawbaugh's, Bell's and Rogers's reproduction of it in America; and heartily concurs with Judge Garland.

The judges of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania have lately denied an injunction to the Bell Company on their broad claims; and the most eminent jurists throughout the country agree with them in the above opinion.

Thus guaranteed against infringement suits, and having secured rights in these marvelous instruments, and owning the various properties described above. "The Rogers Telegraph and Telephone Company," incorporated under the laws of the State of New York, April 21, 1884, was capitalized at $5,000,000, divided into shares of $100 cach.

It is possible that the Telephone stock alone—to say nothing of "the future possibilities of Electricity," may, like that of the Bell Company, which was capitalized at $10,000,000, rise to very high prices; but for the sake of rapid construction, and to develop the rich mines of electrical discovery already in sight, the company offers to investors and speculators very rare opportunities—for holders of this stock hold, in effect, shares of all the above sweeks.
